Professional Profile

Hardworking and enthusiastic journalism graduate seeking science journalism experience.
Enthusiastic individual with writing, audio and video journalism skills, and experience in social media, digital marketing and content writing.

Education

March 2016 – Oct 2018	Bachelor of Communication (Journalism) RMIT University I am a third-year journalism student. I have completed courses including Politics and Economics, Features and Storytelling, Journalism Technologies, Photojournalism and more. This has given me a breadth of experience in written, audio, visual and video journalism, including an assessment Fact Check Your Mother which won the university Best Innovation in Journalism at the Ossie Awards.
July 2017 – October 2017	Teeline Shorthand Short Course RMIT University
February 2010 – November	Victorian Certificate of Education (VCE) Warragul Regional College

Work Experience

September 2017 – October 2018	Marketing Intern Ignition Wealth Working under the Communications Director for Ignition Wealth – researching, writing and posting blog posts for the Ignition Wealth website.
February 2018	Intern New Atlas I interned for New Atlas as part of my Journalism degree in my final year. This involved the writing, researching and editing of science and technology related articles. During the three-week internship, I also wrote a longer feature article.
September 2016 – March	Grants Research & Communications The Grants Hub Keep the Grants Directory up-to-date, compiling Weekly Grants Notifications. I also had a communications role, writing several articles about The Grants Hub's work, for the website.
